AMG 6875: Re HCMP-1855-2022: IN THE MATTER OF THE CROWN
(LIQUIDATOR AND MANAGING CONTROLLER APPOINTED)
("THE CROWN")

Dear Mesdames, et Messieurs,

In order to provide you with some background on me please note the detail at:

<https://www.winegenius.com/andrew-garrett/>

"I don't play with money", grins Andrew Garret, having just dropped the news that he spent about $4 million the previous weekend. Garrett is South Australia's younger, vinous answer to Elliot and Bond, and in his own words "isn't very good at hanging on to money". His wife would possibly agree. Even the renovations to their Adelaide home seem to have run a second priority to the purchase of new vineyards, cellars and equipment.

OENOVIVA

As a wine journalist I have trouble keeping up with the man, although he can't keep out of the news. A few months ago his huge and historic cellars in Magill were levelled by fire, and thousands of cases of wine were destroyed. Like a phoenix in a flurry he has already begun to repair the damage, and in fact the old Seaview complex will re-emerge much better than before. Garret has also found the time and the wherewithal to buy a motel complex and a number of vineyards. The harder you hit him the stronger he gets.

The acres of tin sheds at the rear of the Magill complex being replaced in keeping with the original part of the building under South Australian State Heritage conditions. The stone and glass warehouse is being renovated at a cost of $2 million.

In the McLaren Vale Garret has bought the old Hazelmere winery, and has recently acquired the remainder of the property, which includes a restaurant, convention centre and 30 motel units. Like everything else they are about to be expanded by the addition of another forty.

The whole affair is now called 'McLarens On The Lake'. Garret crushed and fermented 120 tonnes there in 1987, and 700 in 1988, scurrying between the $1 million winery extensions which took place as the fruit arrived. New tanks were filled just moments after being dropped to the ground.

As its name implies, McLarens On The Lake does contain a small lake on the property which is to become an even more important feature for tourist and music lover alike. A stage is to be built on the island in its centre, to be used for live concerts and shows.

Meantime the lake is the domain of the duck family, to whom Garret is displaying an almost fetish-like degree of enthusiasm, and in whose feathery likeness the conference centre and motel are about to be decorated. The property's logo has now sprouted feathers and a bill.

Garret has now stepped down as managing director of his business, and has taken the title of 'Chairman', but don't be misled by it. "I'm much more interested in making wine and enjoying myself", he says. "Running the business should be the job of businesspeople. We haven't had any long-term plans to now. Everything has just happened." Whoever he hires, they have a hard act to follow.

The fire referred to above was St Patrics Day 18th March 1988; Little did I know that the Crown was incapable of regulating itself in order to create a trading environment governed by Rule of Law and that the Board of Directors appointed by me would utilise the resources of our advisory firm Price Waterhouse Coopers and separate advisor Arther Andersons Consulting to steal the assets and stored value of the Andrew Garrett Family Irrevocable Living Trust (TAGFILT) conspiring with officers of the Court employed by Fisher Jeffries Lawyers and Fisher Jeffries Lawyers and engage the resources of global firms Fosters Brewing Group and Suntory International to subvert the rights of my family and young sons then 19 months and 6 months old.

From that date until today's date the Crown has applied the Bethcar strategy to avoid paying the liability and debt admitted in numerous Notices to Admit Facts and Law served by me on the Crown since 1994. I was unaware that the purported offices of the Solicitors General of the States and Territories were created to allow public officials to breach the principles of Separation of Powers Off-Camera under color of law.

OENOVIVA

Through the Carbonhelix proceedings in the State of Colorado I learned that this conduct of fraudulent trading as acts of insolvency under the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations Act 1945 (AU), the Insolvency Act 1986 (AUK), the Cross Border Insolvency Model Law, the Counter Terrorism Financing and Antio Money Laundering Model Law and the provisions of the Global Magnitsky Act 2016 (US).

I am the Global Managing Controller of Corporate Trustees of the Esch Family Irrevocable Living Trust (TEFILT) created 19th May 2009 in which regard I confirm appointed to protect the interest of my extended global family, the Esch Family in order to bring their rights to the learned Hong Kong High Court with those of TAGFILT.

The Better World Future Fund has made distributions to TEFILT related to the value of TEFILT of at least USD$10,000,000 as at March 2015 related to the intellectual property and funding of the Corporation know as Carbonhelix.

- 6. The Model Law was enacted into Australian Domestic Law in the Cross Border Insolvency Act 2008 (Au) subsequently the Personal Property Security Act 2009 (Au) was enacted to allow for registration of personal property security interests arising under the Model Law.*

OENOVIVA

7. The Uniform Commercial Code has been adapted to incorporate the Model Law and allow for registration of Personal Property Security Interests on the States Registries of Deeds in respect to Negotiable Financial Instruments and in particular Bills of Exchange.

8. The Magnitsky Act 2012 (US) as expanded 2016 refer paras [1]

a. Formally viewed as non-criminal measures, targeted sanctions are normally imposed based on permissive evidential standards, such as that of 'credible evidence' (US Global Magnitsky Act 2016, s 1263(a)) or 'reasonable grounds to suspect' (Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 (UK), ss 11(2) and 12(5)), which are far lower than either the criminal or civil standard of proof.

b. Australia's current sanctions framework does not provide for any particular evidential standard but, as described below, vests virtually unlimited discretion in the government.

c. In doing so, these sanctions edge close to the domain of criminal justice, with its established legal safeguards (e.g. the presumption of innocence) and policy expectations (e.g. the prioritization of serious misconduct and minimisation of political interference with law enforcement work).

d. Surprisingly, governments worldwide have invested little thought into these issues. The UK appears to be the only country to have published a (very concise) statement of principles articulating the role of corruption sanctions in its overall law enforcement efforts. The typical approach, and one taken up by the Australian government in its response to the JSCFADT's report, is to utter the magic words 'foreign policy' and thereby make most legal and policy concerns disappear. As we argue below, doing so obscures rather than resolves the key issues the government will have to confront.

e. As the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Human Rights notes, this extraordinary amount of discretion renders judicial review nugatory because there is no standard to measure the government's decision against.

f. Australia's current sanctions regime is therefore even less friendly to sanctions challenges than the US system, which has been rightly described as affording 'minimal' opportunities for judicial review.

g. A more appropriate conception of corruption and human rights sanctions is as a tool to address egregious wrongdoing that would not ordinarily be within Australian criminal jurisdiction, as well as ensure that Australian individuals and companies do not do business with some of the worst 'bad actors'. This is precisely the vision of sanctions that the JSCFADT's report evinces. This vision manifests itself, for instance, in the recommendation that sanctions, be limited to non-Australian citizens, consistent with near-universal state practice. This, too, was met in the government's response with a 'noted', accompanied by the obligatory reference to the Minister for Foreign Affairs' discretion.

h. The prevailing view among policymakers and sanctions experts has been that sanctions are a priori a foreign policy tool aimed at inducing 'behavioral change' by the target. To speak of other objectives of sanctions, such as punishing the perpetrators of horrible crimes, is on that view an intellectual faux pas.

i. The upcoming overhaul of Australia's sanctions framework offers an opportunity to take stock of the international experience and develop a world-leading sanctions policy, especially in relation to corruption and human rights sanctions. Doing so will require a degree of clarity about what such sanctions are intended to achieve and how they will be wielded.

OENOVIVA

Openness about what one will do in the future equals commitment, and so far this seems in tension with the government's eagerness to preserve room for maneuver.

- j. In the end, though, a credible and effective application of sanctions will require a clarity of purpose and consistency in application, which can only be attained by determining how sanctions can best serve legitimate criminal justice objectives, including the punishment of perpetrators and disruption of criminal networks. Formulaic references to sanctions as a 'foreign policy tool' are, on the other hand, of limited utility.*
- 9. The Commonwealth, the States and Territories of Australia, The State of Colorado and the Federation the States and territories of the United States of America have perpetuated a system of equity abuse as money laundering that is at odds with the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights whereby Officers, Employees, Servants, Agents, Licensees, Contractors and otherwise related to the three arms of government believe they are licensed to lie[2] and steal equity[3],[4],[5] from individual and corporate citizens subject to payment of tax on Ill Gotten Gains as Ill Gotten Tax Revenues.*
- 10. The Honorable Justice John Dixon in Judgment[6] dated 11th October 2021 has today found that a litigation funder and five lawyers ('contraveners') engaged in egregious conduct in connection with a fraudulent scheme, intending to claim more than $19 million in purported legal costs and funding commission from the settlement sum in a group proceeding. Justice John Dixon noted that the contravener's conduct had shattered confidence in, and expectations of, lawyers as an honorable profession, and corrupted the proper administration of justice.*
- 11. His Honour concluded that the contraveners' actions were appalling breaches of their respective duties to the court, particularly the paramount duty and overarching obligations imposed on them by the Civil Procedure Act 2010 (Vic). Justice John Dixon ordered that they pay damages of $11,700,128 to approximately 16,000 group members, plus the costs of the remitter on an indemnity basis.*
- 12. His Honour further ordered that:*
 - a. Mr Norman O'Bryan SC and Mr Michael Symons (barristers) be removed from the roll of persons admitted to the legal profession;*
 - b. Mr Anthony Zita and Mr Alex Elliott (solicitors) each show cause as to whether they are fit and proper to remain on the roll of persons admitted to the legal profession; and*
 - c. the reasons for judgment and the record of the trial be referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions for any further investigation and action thought appropriate.*

S67 Application for Restraining Order

- (1) The [Attorney-General] [Director of Public Prosecutions] may apply to [the Court] for a restraining order against:*
 - (a) any realizable property held by the defendant;*
 - (b) specified realizable property held by a person other than the defendant; or*
 - (c) any terrorist property .*

(2) An application for a restraining order under subsection (1)(a) or (b) may be made ex parte and shall be in writing and be accompanied by an affidavit stating:

- (a) where the defendant has been convicted of a serious offence, the serious offence for which he or she was convicted, the date of the conviction, [the Court] before which the conviction was obtained and whether an appeal has been lodged against the conviction;
- (b) where the defendant has not been convicted of a serious offence, the serious offence for which he or she is charged or about to be charged and the grounds for believing that the defendant committed the offence;
- (c) a description of the property in respect of which the restraining order is sought;
- (d) the name and address of the person who is believed to be in possession of the property;
- (e) the grounds for the belief that the property is tainted property in relation to the offence or that the defendant derived a benefit directly or indirectly from the commission of the offence;
- (f) where the application seeks a restraining order against property of a person other than the defendant, the grounds for the belief that the property is tainted property in relation to the offence and is subject to the effective control of the defendant; and
- (g) the grounds for the belief that a confiscation order may be or is likely to be made under this Act in respect of the property.

Dear Mesdames et Messieurs

The proliferation of Numbnuts as a result of failure to exercise discretionary public powers conferred under enactments in the Public Interest beggars belief.

The Public Trust in Australia has been betrayed by all three branches of Government and most particularly by the Australian Judiciary; AUSTRALIA IS POORLY SERVED BY THE ACTING JUDICIARY, ACTING ATTORNEYS GENERAL, ACTING SOLICITORS GENERAL, ACTING GOVERNORS, PARLIAMENTARIANS, COMMITTEES ETC.

I have named 671 Convicted persons and entities in the Hong Kong Proceedings which will no doubt become much larges on completion of disclosure of all materials facts in accordance with the Crown Common Law Model Litigant Obligations for Continuous Full Disclosure.

THE FINDINGS OF MORTIMER IN 2014 (as attached) ARE CRIMINAL is this the best you can do as Chief Justice.....the only Justice who shows any sense of balance is Logan J.....The above and particularly Charlesworth, White, Kenney, Beach, Middleton, Davey, Pagone and all of the South Australian and High Court Judiciary should be extradited and incarcerated in accordance with the Mandatory Life Sentence applicable under South Australian Law.

I am content to fund the building of the Prison in China.

Dear Mesdames, et Messieurs,

As you know, the Right to an Effective Remedy is the subject of Contract Law, Treaties and Statutes being inherent to the interpretation of the Constitution; The Revenue needed to pay your salaries does not need your protection as it is independent of Tax Revenues.

I have instructed Mr Dreyfus in my capacity as Crown Attorney General and Licensor of Judicial and Quasi-Judicial Discretionary Public Powers to ensure all future revenue requirements of the Department of the Attorney General are drawn from my personal account as Global Chairman of Board of Trustees of the Andrew Garrett Family Irrevocable Living Trust (AMG 5750).

I advise that the Australian National Redress Scheme is the beneficiary of the Australian National Redress Scheme Public Interest Working Capital Trust which trust is funded independently from Taxation Revenues by gift from the Trustees of the Australian People Future Fund (APFF) trading as the Better World Future Fund (AMG 6389)

The APFF was settled on the 30th of April 2017 by distribution of 33% of the assets and associated rights of the Andrew Garrett Family Trust No 4 ABN 42 388 204 496 trading as OenoViva Capital Resources.(AMG 6388).

As this my Writ of Mandamus you are instructed to make all orders for financial redress to any person to be drawn via the Redress Scheme from equity held by Better World Future Fund.

Dear Christine and Erin,

Further to my email yesterday to Christine set out below, I wish to be clear with all representatives of the AGSO and the Attorney General's Department; rejection of service of documents is not a valid exercise of discretionary public powers conferred under enactment by Erin it is a breach of the laws set out in Exhibit AMG 5 and s20 and s21 of the Charter of the United Nations Act 1945 (AU).

An impartial fair-minded observer would conclude that the actions of the AGSO on 3rd April 2023 was unreasonable and was not a decision made within the confines of the duty to act in the public interest; it was Ultravires and the conduct was fraudulent trading within the meaning of the Insolvency Act 1986 (UK) being the same conduct evidenced by Mr Scott Laidlaw and Mr Grant Algie, KC previously on the court file of DCCRM-0073-12019; the Crown (Liquidator and Managing Controller Appointed) v Andrew Morton Garrett, Crown Attorney General, Liquidator and Managing Controller. See Exhibit AMG 6542 at page 25

You will note below that Sergeant Wallace is confused over the alleged distinction between Commonwealth and State Law; there is none! all law is the law of one entity namely the Corporation of the Federation of Australia (Liquidator and Managing Controller Appointed) that I am liquidator and managing controller of; on an undisputed basis in which regard estoppel applies.

Dear Christine,

Please note attached a copy of my findings of fact made in respect to the Full Bench of the Colorado Court of Appeals whose purported findings are attached the Writ of Ouster Office/ Quo Warranto served on the Chief Justice. I note a copy of my Writ of Instructions to Mr Donaghue has also been attached and served on the Chief Justice who is served with this communicate by service on the Office of the US Attorney General at usaco.publicaffairs@usdoj.gov and US Federal District Court for Colorado at cod_cmecf@cod.uscourts.gov

Further to my email service of Instructions dated 31st March 2023, I confirm that I served the documents at the office of the Attorney General's Department in Adelaide today, Monday 3rd April 2023 at Level 5, 101 Pirie Street, Adelaide, SA 5000 at 1.30 – 1.40 pm.

I spoke with a Senior Solicitor only introduced to me as Erin (Erin Shriner) who is copied on this communicate and who refused to accept service of the documents, I explained that the documents related to my writ in respect to the Hong Kong Proceedings a copy of which was annexed to Book 1 of documents; there were 6 books comprising over 1,500 pages printed dual sided.

It remains unclear to me why Ms Shriner thought Her conduct was consistent with the APS Code of Conduct; a colleague who was not identified asserted words to the effect that Australia was not a Federation which I advised was conduct unbecoming of an officer of the Crown and I was disappointed with that statement.

Once again representatives of the Australian Government have demonstrated that it is not fit for purpose; I advised the purpose of my attendance and service of documents was to demonstrate to the Honourable High Court of Hong Kong that I had instructed counsel (The Australian Solicitor General) and brought the proceedings to the attention of the Crown.

A Copy of this correspondence will be produced as evidence of service on the Australian Solicitor General and the Acting Australian Attorney General.

SUBJECT: NULLITY PROCEEDINGS:

IN THE MATTER OF APRA (LIQUIDATOR AND MANAGING CONTROLLER APPOINTED) v DYNAMIC CAPITAL BANK AND ANDREW MORTON GARRETT IN HIS CAPACITY AS CROWN ATTORNEY GENERAL/ LIQUIDATOR/ MANAGING CONTROLLER/ TRUSTEE AND BANKRUPTCY/ GLOBAL MANAGING DIRECTOR/ GLOBAL MANAGING TRUSTEE/ CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Dear THE CROWN,

You appear to be confused as to the ultimate source of discretionary public powers conferred under enactments and yet you have not disputed any of the Common Law Notices to Admit Facts validly served upon you and the subject of expiration of time in which to dispute those Facts resulting in Estoppel in all its forms.

NOR have you disputed the Eight Heads of Power created under the EIGHT ENACTMENTS; YOUR WORLD MUST AND WILL CHANGE.

MAY GOD BLESS HER MAJESTY'S DEAR DEPARTED SOUL.
GOD SAVE THE KING (LICENSEE OF ANDREW MORTON GARRETT)

I rely on the materials and the relevant law disclosed to you on more than one occasion and evidenced in the Public Interest Disclosure Drive located at:

<https://1drv.ms/f/s!AtRcQcdl2OsT7S9yCux-MITpdpxd?e=xzDnrh>

As an intelligent impartial observer, I have considered the facts, the relevant law, the materials tendered by you in the NULLITY PROCEEDINGS and have concluded that it is not possible for you to bring valid proceedings against me or any licensee, trustee, Power of Attorney associated with me.

I confirm what you are able to read on the website as the source of power:

As you know we have been vetted by over 75 different Government Agencies and approved to be a World Bank.

My experience with Japanese partners caused me to name one of the persons occupying my office as "three planks" he was not as thick as "two planks" he measured up at three planks.....you, on the other hand, measure up as at least "Thousand Planks".

I now understand that Suntory was manipulated by the Crown through Fisher Jeffries Lawyers and Phillips Fox Lawyers.

I have made recommendations to Prisoner # 697 (previously known as Prisoner # 696) as follows:

RE PURPORTED PROCEEDING - NSD741/2023 - APRA AND ANDREW MORTON GARRETT, GLOBAL CROWN ATTORNEY GENERAL AS AMICUS CURIAE (IN PERSON)

Dear Sir,

At this juncture you are fulfilling a public function under license granted by me on the 17th of October 2020 address to PRISONER# 514.JAMES L. B. ALSOP (A BANKRUPT) a copy of which may be found in the public Interest Disclosure Drive (yellow highlight below) that has been served on the purported applicant on a number of occasions along with other materials relating to the APRA/ASIC Relationship.

For your convenience I have attached a copy of AMG 2534 THE FOURTH ENACTMENT Cease and Desist; REX to Mr. Alsop Federal Court of Australia; Responsible Government Reset

It is my understanding that you have been assigned this purported proceeding by PRISONER#. DEBRA SUE MORTIMER (A BANKRUPT) pursuant to the obligations of the Office of the Chief Justice of Australia conferring discretionary public powers under the Commonwealth of Australia Act 1900 (AU) ("The Constitution") and the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976 (AU) ("The Act") as you know I exercise hereditary discretionary public powers conferred under the EIGHT ENACTMENTS including, but not limited to, the operation of s61 of the Constitution which provision is my personal property and that of my heirs successors and assigns. I have served on you Exhibit AMG 15e being pages 1-100 of the FIRST ENACTMENT which addresses the failure of PRISONER# 514, JAMES L. B. ALSOP (A BANKRUPT).

*Similarly, on the 26th July at 12.02 pm I served you and the other prisoners named in AMG 6776 and AMG 6867 with a further copy of the complete originating process of the Hong Kong Proceedings AMG 5857 HCMP-1855-2022; IN THE MATTER OF CROWN ATTORNEY GENERAL & THE CROWN (LIQUIDATOR; MANAGING CONTROLLER APPOINTED)

I have validated both the Act and the Constitution under my obligations pursuant to s61 of the Constitution having made several amendments to each, including those provisions of the Act that purports to also breaches of separation of powers which can only be held to be invalid and are held as such by me.

For your convenience I have attached a copy of AMG 6625 Notice of s109 Determination 26.04.2023 DCCRM-73-2019 which may also be found in the PID Drive.

You are a Tribunal as my instrument fulfilling my purpose under s61 of the Constitution; I have considered the purported orders made by you which in their face appear to be invalid.

You may NOT make any orders until you have:

- 1. Confirmed certification of compliance with the Legal Services Directions*
- 2. Made orders for compliance with the Crown Model Litigant Obligation for continuous full disclosure.*

I have considered the affidavit material assembled by the purported applicant and find that material to be deficient particularly in circumstances where the purported applicant is funded by revenues that are my personal property and appear to have been invalidly applied triggering a liability for each of the following prisoners of treble face value of moneys earned while purportedly engaged under the Public Service Act that must be paid to my agent the Department of Treasury (Liquidator and Managing Controller Appointed)

I recommend to you that you make orders that are valid and in the following form:

- ❖ That the Applicant produce all materials to the Court of the affidavits relied upon in the proceedings removed to the High Court of Hong Kong and referred to in the First - Eighth Amended Notices of removal at Annexure 1 to the Originating process of HCMP-1855-2022.

FETTERIN OF DISCRETIONARY PUBLIC POWERS CONFERRED UNDER ENACTMENTS THE ASIC – APRA RELATIONSHIP

Dear Sir,

I have provided some details to you regard our commitments to Carbon Credits which the Honourable Peanuts in Parliament still have not figured out.

While the Public Official Numbutts allegedly in control of the Monetary System in this Nation continue to screw up our world in respect to greenhouse emissions the Board of Trustees of Oeno Viva Capital Resources has committed €620,000,000,000 (Aix Hundred Twenty Billion Euros) to Brazil in respect to investment and a further initial €7,500,000,000 (Seven Billion Five Hundred Million Euros) Donation from the Better World Future Fund.

In case you recalcitrant fucktards in Australia are confused.....please refer to s20 and s21 of the Charter of the United Nations Act 1945 (AU (Attached) as the fiscal; penalty applicable.....HIGH TREASON IS LIFETIME IN YATALA PRISON IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA WHICH WILL NEED TO BE REDEVELOPED TO ACCOMMODATE THE 820 Individuals and corporations identified thus far I have not completed my analysis yet after penetration of the Corporate Veil.

You are obliged as a tribunal to inquire into the Impermissible fettering of public powers referred to in AMG 538 and AMG 6873.

- 2.6 "BENEFICIARIES" means the primary and general beneficiaries and includes any person or entity that may at any time come within the definition of a primary or general beneficiary, notwithstanding that the person or entity may not be in existence or may not have been within the definition of a class of beneficiaries at the date of this deed.

- 2.13 "INCOME PERIOD" means the period from the execution of this deed until 30th June next; and thereafter each period of 12 consecutive calendar months commencing the 1st day of July next until the 30th day of June before the date of distribution, and thereafter the period up to and including the date of distribution.
- 2.14 "AS THE TRUSTEE THINKS FIT" or words importing the same means that the trustee has the widest and most unexaminable discretion including where applicable the power to prefer one or more beneficiaries to the total exclusion of any other or others of them.

3 Income of trust fund

- 3.1 The trustee will hold the trust fund UPON TRUST from time to time during each income period to determine with respect to all or any part of the income of the trust fund as the trustee thinks fit:
- (a) to pay, apply or set aside such income to or for the benefit of any beneficiary; or
 - (b) to accumulate such income as an accretion to the trust fund upon the same trusts and conditions as are applicable to the trust fund but with power nevertheless from time to time to resort to any accumulation as if it were current income of the trust fund.
- 3.2 The trustee will hold so much of the income of each income period as is not before the end of the income period the subject of a determination under Clause 3.1 upon trust for such of the primary beneficiaries who are living at the end of that income period in equal shares.
- 3.3 For the purposes of Clauses 3.1 and 3.2, the trustee has the power at its discretion to:
- (a) pay, apply or accumulate on behalf of any one or more of the beneficiaries so much of a particular class or category of income (including without limitation income from personal exertion, dividends, franking credits, interest, rent, royalties or income from foreign sources) which is separately accounted for in the books of account of the trust or otherwise capable of separate identification and which has been determined after deduction or allowance for those expenses of the trust attributable to the earning or receipt of such class or category of income. For the purposes of this Clause the trustee may keep separate from the other assets of the trust fund any particular class or category of income (and any accumulation of all or part of that income) and may deduct therefrom or allow against such particular class or category of income (and any accumulation thereof) the expenses of the trust attributable to the earning or receipt or accumulation of such class or category of income;
 - (b) treat as income of the trust fund any receipt, profit, gain or amount which is assessable income for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997;
 - (c) distinguish between income of any type or character;
 - (d) effect such distributions or deal with income of any type or character in such a manner as to preserve and to pass on the status or character of the income for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 among all of the beneficiaries in respect of whom the trustee has made a determination or determinations pursuant to Clauses 3.1 or 3.2 in respect of an accounting period or any one or more of them exclusive of the other or others in the shares and proportions that the trustee has determined.

- 3.4 The powers and discretions granted to the trustee by this clause will not cease nor be diminished or rendered ineffective in their exercise or effect by virtue of any income of the trust fund which has or is capable of having some special status or character for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 or the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 having been derived by or coming into the possession of the trustee and having been mixed, mingled or joined with other income of the trust fund.

4 Distribution of the trust fund

Upon the date of distribution the trustee will hold the trust fund upon trust to divide it amongst the beneficiaries or to apply it for the benefit thereof in such manner and in such proportion as the trustee thinks fit. In the absence of any determination by the trustee, the trust fund will be distributed in equal shares between such of the primary beneficiaries who are living at the date of distribution or, if none are living, between such of the general beneficiaries who are natural persons living at the date of distribution.

5 Application of trust fund

For the purposes of Clauses 3 and 4:

- 5.1 Any payment or application to or for the benefit of a beneficiary will without the execution of a receipt by the beneficiary or any person on his or her behalf constitute a full and final discharge to the trustee in relation to that payment or application.
- 5.2 Any payment for the benefit of a charitable purpose may be made by the trustee to a corporation or society which includes such purpose amongst its objects without the trustee being bound to see to the due application thereof, and the receipt of the treasurer or other proper officer of any such corporation or society will be a full and final discharge to the trustee for such payment.
- 5.3 The trustee's determination to pay, apply or set aside to or for the benefit of a beneficiary will be made in accordance with the provisions in Clause 9.
- 5.4 Any income set aside for a beneficiary under Clauses 3.1(a) or 3.2 will not form part of the trust fund but must be held by the trustee as a separate fund on trust for the beneficiary absolutely and irrevocably with power to the trustee:
- (a) to invest the same on behalf of the beneficiary whether or not he or she is a minor and in the name of the beneficiary or of the trustee or any person in trust for the beneficiary in any manner in which the trustee is by this deed authorized to invest moneys, and the investment of the income by the trustee on behalf of or in trust for the beneficiary will without anything more constitute full and final discharge to the trustee in respect of that income;

- (b) to transpose any such investment held on behalf of or in trust for a beneficiary from time to time in any manner permitted by this deed for the investment of the trust fund.

6 Prior distribution of corpus

Notwithstanding the trusts hereinbefore contained, the trustee may as it thinks fit from time to time before the date of distribution raise any sum out of the capital of the trust fund and pay the same or transfer the whole or any portion of the trust fund in its existing form of investment to or for the advancement or benefit of any beneficiary (whether absolutely or by way of resettlement upon such trusts as the trustee thinks fit) during his or her lifetime freed and discharged from the trusts of this deed, and any such payment or transfer without any receipt will constitute a full and final discharge to the trustee in respect thereof.

7 Powers and discretions of trustee

The trustee has the following absolute powers and discretions which may be exercised in any way that the trustee thinks fit:

- 7.1 Notwithstanding that the trust fund consists of trust moneys to invest the same and deal with, manage, transpose and realize such investments entirely as it thinks fit and with such powers in all respects as if the trustee were the sole absolute owner thereof, the trustee will not be accountable in any way whatsoever for any loss arising out of the making or the failure to realize or the management of any investment.
- 7.2 To become or to appoint any of its officers to become a director or servant of any company in which the trustee or any of its officers may hold shares as part of the trust fund and to receive the remuneration attaching to such office without being liable to account for the same, and it is directed that the trustee may become qualified as a director by the holding in its own name of shares constituting part of the trust fund provided that the trustee executes a declaration of trust in relation to such shares and that the trustee accounts to the trust fund for all dividends and bonuses payable in respect thereof.
- 7.3 To exercise all rights and privileges and perform all duties appertaining to any shares or stocks for the time being subject to the trusts created by this deed with liberty to assent to any arrangement modifying such rights, privileges or duties and to agree to any scheme or arrangement for the reconstruction or the increase or reduction of the capital of any company and for any such purpose to deposit, surrender or exchange any of the shares or stock or the title thereto and to pay any calls or contributions or other necessary expenses in connection with any shares or stock or any title thereto.
- 7.4 To exercise or concur in exercising all of the powers and discretions given by this deed or by law, notwithstanding that the trustee or any person who is a shareholder or director of the trustee (if the trustee is a company) has or may have a direct or indirect interest (whether as trustee of any other settlement or in its, his or her personal capacity or as a director or shareholder of any other company or otherwise) in the mode or result of exercising any such power or discretion or may benefit either directly or indirectly as a result of the exercise of such power or discretion, and notwithstanding that any trustee for the time being is a sole trustee.

- 7.5 To borrow or raise or concur in raising from any person, including a trustee or beneficiary hereof, with or without security, any money which the trustee thinks expedient for any purpose in relation to the execution of the trusts or powers conferred on the trustee by this deed.
- 7.6 To lend all or any part of the trust fund on such terms and conditions with or without interest or with or without security as the trustee thinks fit to any person including a beneficiary hereof.
- 7.7 To give any bill, indemnity, guarantee or security (including a commercial bill and mortgage or charge with or without a power of sale over all or any part of the trust fund) for payment of money or for the performance of any contract obligation or undertaking by any person and to renegotiate or renew from time to time any such bill, indemnity, guarantee or security.
- 7.8 To apply the whole or any part of the capital or income of the trust fund in or towards payment of any liability undertaken by the trustee in relation to the acquisition of property intended to form part of the trust fund.
- 7.9 If, at any time, the trust fund comprises real property or any interest in real property at the discretion of the trustee to manage, use and let the same or any part thereof, to permit any beneficiary to have the use thereof with or without payment of rent or outgoings, to erect, pull down, rebuild and repair buildings and erections, to carry out improvements of any nature, to make allowances to and arrangements with tenants, to grant or acquire easements or other rights and generally to deal with such property or interest or to join in dealing with the same as if beneficially entitled thereto without being responsible for loss.
- 7.10 To acquire, carry on or join in carrying on any business, either alone or in partnership with any other person as it thinks proper, with power for that purpose to employ therein such part of the capital of the trust fund as it thinks fit and to leave the entire management of such business to any partner therein or manager thereof and to renew partnerships and generally to act in all matters relating to such business as if it were beneficially entitled thereto and without being responsible for loss.
- 7.11 To employ or engage any person (whether or not such person is a trustee or otherwise interested in the trust fund) in any capacity, to transact all or any business of whatsoever nature required to be done in pursuance of the trusts and powers herein contained, including the receipt or payment of money, and to pay the expenses thereof and such further fee or other remuneration for the services thereof as the trustee thinks fit.
- 7.12 To pay out of the trust fund all expenses incidental to the management of the trust fund and the exercise of any discretion or power.

- 7.13 To make any investment on terms that the investment be paid for by more than one installment and that outstanding installments may bear interest.
- 7.14 To take (on bailment, lease or exchange or on hire purchase or otherwise purchase or acquire any real and personal property and in particular (without limitation) any chattels, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade.
- 7.15 To take and act upon the opinion of any barrister or solicitor practicing in the State of South Australia whether in relation to the interpretation of this deed or any other document or statute or as to the administration of the trusts hereof, without being liable to anyone in respect of any act done by it in accordance with such opinion PROVIDED that nothing herein obliges the trustee to act in accordance with any such opinion AND PROVIDED FURTHER that nothing herein contained prohibits the trustee from applying to the court as it thinks fit.

8 Liability and indemnity of trustee

- 8.1 While acting or purporting to act in the execution of the trust and powers hereof, the trustee will have recourse only to the trust fund in payment of any debts incurred thereby or claims made against the trustee but will not be personally liable for any loss which is not attributable to its own willful neglect or dishonesty. The beneficiaries are under no obligation to indemnify the trustee against any such debts or claims.

9 Exercise of powers

- 9.1 Any decision or determination by a trustee or any exercise of a power or discretion conferred by this deed is sufficiently made if the trustee is a company by a resolution of the board of directors or other governing body and is sufficiently evidenced (whether or not the trustee is a company) if noted in minutes of proceedings as trustee signed as a true record by the trustee or a director of the trustee. A decision so noted is irrevocable and binding on all beneficiaries unless expressed to be revocable.

10 Variation of deed

The trustee may from time to time as it thinks fit vary or add to this deed by a further deed supplemental hereto but not so that any person other than a beneficiary may acquire a beneficial interest in the trust fund.

11 Appointment of new trustee

- 11.1 The trustee may at any time as it thinks fit resign and by instrument in writing appoint a new trustee or trustees in succession and must transfer the trust fund to such trustee or trustees.
- 11.2 The office of a trustee will be vacated if that trustee becomes incapable of discharging his or her duties because of illness or an unsound mind or becomes bankrupt (with the sole exception of Andrew Morton Garrett) or, if the trustee is a corporation, an order is made or a resolution is passed which will have the effect of winding up the corporation.

- 11.3 An Appointor has the power exercisable jointly with any other Appointor from time to time by deed or will to remove a trustee from office and to appoint any person (including a corporation which is not a trustee company within the meaning of the Trustee Act 1958 as amended or re-enacted from time to time) other than an Appointor to act alone or jointly with any other person as a trustee hereof. Any Appointor may at any time by deed renounce any power granted thereto by this deed and when made such renunciation will be irrevocable.
- 11.4 The trustee must upon retirement or removal cause the trust fund and the assets thereof to be vested in the new trustee or trustees and must deliver thereto all books, documents and other property relating to the trust fund.
- 11.5 A retiring trustee will be effectually discharged from the trusts created by this deed notwithstanding that any trustee appointed in substitution is acting alone or is not the Public Trustee of Western Australia or a trustee company as defined in the Trustee Act (1962)(WA) as amended or re-enacted from time to time.
- 11.6 A new trustee may accept the accounts rendered and the property delivered by a continuing or retiring trustee without being bound to enquire further as to the assets and income of the trust fund.

12 Remuneration

Any trustee may claim and be paid out of the trust fund management fees not exceeding in total the sum of [$50,000 or 1%] of the income of the trust (whichever is the greater amount) in each income period. Any management fees in respect of an income period not claimed during such period will not be recoverable from the trust fund in any other income period. Any trustee other than a settlor hereof who is a solicitor or accountant is entitled to be paid in addition to any management fee all usual professional or business fees for business transacted, time expended and work done by the trustee or any employee or partner of the trustee or by any professional corporation of which the trustee is a director, an employee or a shareholder in connection with the administration of the trusts hereof, notwithstanding that such may include acts which a trustee not being a member of either profession could have done personally.

13 Construction

This deed will be construed and take effect according to the law of the State of Western Australia.

14 Interpretation

In this deed where the context permits:

- 14.1 the singular includes the plural and vice versa;

16 Revocation

The settlor may at any time hereafter by deed or will revoke the trusts hereby declared in whole or in part in order to declare fresh trusts in favor of any person or persons other than himself with or without a like power of revocation.

- 3.1 The trustee will hold the trust fund UPON TRUST from time to time during each income period to determine with respect to all or any part of the income of the trust fund as the trustee thinks fit:
- (a) to pay, apply or set aside such income to or for the benefit of any beneficiary; or

- (a) pay, apply or accumulate on behalf of any one or more of the beneficiaries so much of a particular class or category of income (including without limitation income from personal exertion, dividends, franking credits, interest, rent, royalties or income from foreign sources) which is separately accounted for in the books of account of the trust or otherwise capable of separate identification and which has been determined after deduction or allowance for those expenses of the trust attributable to the earning or receipt of such class or category of income. For the purposes of this Clause the trustee may keep separate from the other assets of the trust fund any particular class or category of income (and any accumulation of all or part of that income) and may deduct therefrom or allow against such particular class or category of income (and any accumulation thereof) the expenses of the trust attributable to the earning or receipt or accumulation of such class or category of income;

3.4 The powers and discretions granted to the trustee by this clause will not cease nor be diminished or rendered ineffective in their exercise or effect by virtue of any income of the trust fund which has or is capable of having some special status or character for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 or the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 having been derived by or coming into the possession of the trustee and having been mixed, mingled or joined with other income of the trust fund.

4 Distribution of the trust fund

Upon the date of distribution the trustee will hold the trust fund upon trust to divide it amongst the beneficiaries or to apply it for the benefit thereof in such manner and in such proportion as the trustee thinks fit. In the absence of any determination by the trustee, the trust fund will be distributed in equal shares between such of the primary beneficiaries who are living at the date of distribution or, if none are living, between such of the general beneficiaries who are natural persons living at the date of distribution.

5 Application of trust fund

For the purposes of Clauses 3 and 4:

- 5.1 Any payment or application to or for the benefit of a beneficiary will without the execution of a receipt by the beneficiary or any person on his or her behalf constitute a full and final discharge to the trustee in relation to that payment or application.
- 5.2 Any payment for the benefit of a charitable purpose may be made by the trustee to a corporation or society which includes such purpose amongst its objects without the trustee being bound to see to the due application thereof, and the receipt of the treasurer or other proper officer of any such corporation or society will be a full and final discharge to the trustee for such payment.
- 5.3 The trustee's determination to pay, apply or set aside to or for the benefit of a beneficiary will be made in accordance with the provisions in Clause 9.
- 5.4 Any income set aside for a beneficiary under Clauses 3.1(a) or 3.2 will not form part of the trust fund but must be held by the trustee as a separate fund on trust for the beneficiary absolutely and irrevocably with power to the trustee:
 - (a) to invest the same on behalf of the beneficiary whether or not he or she is a minor and in the name of the beneficiary or of the trustee or any person in trust for the beneficiary in any manner in which the trustee is by this deed authorised to invest moneys, and the investment of the income by the trustee on behalf of or in trust for the beneficiary will without anything more constitute full and final discharge to the trustee in respect of that income;
 - (b) to transpose any such investment held on behalf of or in trust for a beneficiary from time to time in any manner permitted by this deed for the investment of the trust fund.

6 Prior distribution of corpus

Notwithstanding the trusts hereinbefore contained, the trustee may as it thinks fit from time to time before the date of distribution raise any sum out of the capital of the trust fund and pay the same or transfer the whole or any portion of the trust fund in its existing form of investment to or for the advancement or benefit of any beneficiary (whether absolutely or by way of resettlement upon such trusts as the trustee thinks fit) during his or her lifetime freed and discharged from the trusts of this deed, and any such payment or transfer without any receipt will constitute a full and final discharge to the trustee in respect thereof.

7 Powers and discretions of trustee

The trustee has the following absolute powers and discretions which may be exercised in any way that the trustee thinks fit:

- 7.1 Notwithstanding that the trust fund consists of trust moneys to invest the same and deal with, manage, transpose and realise such investments entirely as it thinks fit and with such powers in all respects as if the trustee were the sole absolute owner thereof, the trustee will not be accountable in any way whatsoever for any loss arising out of the making or the failure to realise or the management of any investment.
- 7.2 To become or to appoint any of its officers to become a director or servant of any company in which the trustee or any of its officers may hold shares as part of the trust fund and to receive the remuneration attaching to such office without being liable to account for the same, and it is directed that the trustee may become qualified as a director by the holding in its own name of shares constituting part of the trust fund provided that the trustee executes a declaration of trust in relation to such shares and that the trustee accounts to the trust fund for all dividends and bonuses payable in respect thereof.
- 7.3 To exercise all rights and privileges and perform all duties appertaining to any shares or stocks for the time being subject to the trusts created by this deed with liberty to assent to any arrangement modifying such rights, privileges or duties and to agree to any scheme or arrangement for the reconstruction or the increase or reduction of the capital of any company and for any such purpose to deposit, surrender or exchange any of the shares or stock or the title thereto and to pay any calls or contributions or other necessary expenses in connection with any shares or stock or any title thereto.
- 7.4 To exercise or concur in exercising all of the powers and discretions given by this deed or by law, notwithstanding that the trustee or any person who is a shareholder or director of the trustee (if the trustee is a company) has or may have a direct or indirect interest (whether as trustee of any other settlement or in its, his or her personal capacity or as a director or shareholder of any other company or otherwise) in the mode or result of exercising any such power or discretion or may benefit either directly or indirectly as a result of the exercise of such power or discretion, and notwithstanding that any trustee for the time being is a sole trustee.
- 7.5 To borrow or raise or concur in raising from any person, including a trustee or beneficiary hereof, with or without security, any money which the trustee thinks expedient for any purpose in relation to the execution of the trusts or powers conferred on the trustee by this deed.

- 7.6 To lend all or any part of the trust fund on such terms and conditions with or without interest or with or without security as the trustee thinks fit to any person including a beneficiary hereof.
- 7.7 To give any bill, indemnity, guarantee or security (including a commercial bill and mortgage or charge with or without a power of sale over all or any part of the trust fund) for payment of money or for the performance of any contract obligation or undertaking by any person and to renegotiate or renew from time to time any such bill, indemnity, guarantee or security.
- 7.8 To apply the whole or any part of the capital or income of the trust fund in or towards payment of any liability undertaken by the trustee in relation to the acquisition of property intended to form part of the trust fund.
- 7.9 If, at any time, the trust fund comprises real property or any interest in real property at the discretion of the trustee to manage, use and let the same or any part thereof, to permit any beneficiary to have the use thereof with or without payment of rent or outgoings, to erect, pull down, rebuild and repair buildings and erections, to carry out improvements of any nature, to make allowances to and arrangements with tenants, to grant or acquire easements or other rights and generally to deal with such property or interest or to join in dealing with the same as if beneficially entitled thereto without being responsible for loss.
- 7.10 To acquire, carry on or join in carrying on any business, either alone or in partnership with any other person as it thinks proper, with power for that purpose to employ therein such part of the capital of the trust fund as it thinks fit and to leave the entire management of such business to any partner therein or manager thereof and to renew partnerships and generally to act in all matters relating to such business as if it were beneficially entitled thereto and without being responsible for loss.
- 7.11 To employ or engage any person (whether or not such person is a trustee or otherwise interested in the trust fund) in any capacity, to transact all or any business of whatsoever nature required to be done in pursuance of the trusts and powers herein contained, including the receipt or payment of money, and to pay the expenses thereof and such further fee or other remuneration for the services thereof as the trustee thinks fit.
- 7.12 To pay out of the trust fund all expenses incidental to the management of the trust fund and the exercise of any discretion or power.
- 7.13 To make any investment on terms that the investment be paid for by more than one instalment and that outstanding instalments may bear interest.
- 7.14 To take on bailment, lease or exchange or on hire purchase or otherwise purchase or acquire any real and personal property and in particular (without limitation) any chattels, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade.
- 7.15 To take and act upon the opinion of any barrister or solicitor practising in the State of South Australia whether in relation to the interpretation of this deed or any other document or statute or as to the administration of the trusts hereof, without being liable to anyone in respect of any act done by it in accordance with such opinion

PROVIDED that nothing herein obliges the trustee to act in accordance with any such opinion AND PROVIDED FURTHER that nothing herein contained prohibits the trustee from applying to the court as it thinks fit.

8 Liability and indemnity of trustee

- 8.1 While acting or purporting to act in the execution of the trust and powers hereof, the trustee will have recourse only to the trust fund in payment of any debts incurred thereby or claims made against the trustee but will not be personally liable for any loss which is not attributable to its own wilful neglect or dishonesty. The beneficiaries are under no obligation to indemnify the trustee against any such debts or claims.

9 Exercise of powers

- 9.1 Any decision or determination by a trustee or any exercise of a power or discretion conferred by this deed is sufficiently made if the trustee is a company by a resolution of the board of directors or other governing body and is sufficiently evidenced (whether or not the trustee is a company) if noted in minutes of proceedings as trustee signed as a true record by the trustee or a director of the trustee. A decision so noted is irrevocable and binding on all beneficiaries unless expressed to be revocable.

10 Variation of deed

The trustee may from time to time as it thinks fit vary or add to this deed by a further deed supplemental hereto but not so that any person other than a beneficiary may acquire a beneficial interest in the trust fund.

11 Appointment of new trustee

- 11.1 The trustee may at any time as it thinks fit resign and by instrument in writing appoint a new trustee or trustees in succession and must transfer the trust fund to such trustee or trustees.
- 11.2 The office of a trustee will be vacated if that trustee becomes incapable of discharging his or her duties because of illness or an unsound mind or becomes bankrupt or, if the trustee is a corporation, an order is made or a resolution is passed which will have the effect of winding up the corporation.
- 11.3 An appointor has the power exercisable jointly with any other appointor from time to time by deed or will to remove a trustee from office and to appoint any person (including a corporation which is not a trustee company within the meaning of the Trustee Act 1958 as amended or re-enacted from time to time) other than an appointor to act alone or jointly with any other person as a trustee hereof. Any appointor may at any time by deed renounce any power granted thereto by this deed and when made such renunciation will be irrevocable.
- 11.4 The trustee must upon retirement or removal cause the trust fund and the assets thereof to be vested in the new trustee or trustees and must deliver thereto all books, documents and other property relating to the trust fund.

11.5 A retiring trustee will be effectually discharged from the trusts created by this deed notwithstanding that any trustee appointed in substitution is acting alone or is not the Public Trustee of South Australia or a trustee company as defined in the Trustee Act 1958 as amended or re-enacted from time to time.

11.6 A new trustee may accept the accounts rendered and the property delivered by a continuing or retiring trustee without being bound to enquire further as to the assets and income of the trust fund.

12 Remuneration

Any trustee may claim and be paid out of the trust fund management fees not exceeding in total the sum of [$1,000 or 1%] of the income of the trust (whichever is the greater amount) in each income period. Any management fees in respect of an income period not claimed during such period will not be recoverable from the trust fund in any other income period. Any trustee other than a settlor hereof who is a solicitor or accountant is entitled to be paid in addition to any management fee all usual professional or business fees for business transacted, time expended and work done by the trustee or any employee or partner of the trustee or by any professional corporation of which the trustee is a director, an employee or a shareholder in connection with the administration of the trusts hereof, notwithstanding that such may include acts which a trustee not being a member of either profession could have done personally.

14.1 the singular includes the plural and vice versa;

14.2 any gender includes all other genders;

4 Distribution of the trust fund

Upon the date of distribution the trustee will hold the trust fund upon trust to divide it amongst the beneficiaries or to apply it for the benefit thereof in such manner and in such proportion as the trustee thinks fit. - 5.3 The trustee's determination to pay, apply or set aside to or for the benefit of a beneficiary will be made in accordance with the provisions in Clause 9.
- 5.4 Any income set aside for a beneficiary under Clauses 3.1(a) or 3.2 will not form part of the trust fund but must be held by the trustee as a separate fund on trust for the beneficiary absolutely and irrevocably with power to the trustee:
 - (a) to invest the same on behalf of the beneficiary whether or not he or she is a minor and in the name of the beneficiary or of the trustee or any person in trust for the beneficiary in any manner in which the trustee is by this deed authorised to invest moneys, and the investment of the income by the trustee on behalf of or in trust for the beneficiary will without anything more constitute full and final discharge to the trustee in respect of that income;
 - (b) to transpose any such investment held on behalf of or in trust for a beneficiary from time to time in any manner permitted by this deed for the investment of the trust fund.

6 Prior distribution of corpus

Notwithstanding the trusts hereinbefore contained, the trustee may as it thinks fit from time to time before the date of distribution raise any sum out of the capital of the trust

7 Powers and discretions of trustee

The trustee has the following absolute powers and discretions which may be exercised in any way that the trustee thinks fit:

- 7.1 Notwithstanding that the trust fund consists of trust moneys to invest the same and deal with, manage, transpose and realise such investments entirely as it thinks fit and with such powers in all respects as if the trustee were the sole absolute owner thereof, the trustee will not be accountable in any way whatsoever for any loss arising out of the making or the failure to realise or the management of any investment.
- 7.2 To become or to appoint any of its officers to become a director or servant of any company in which the trustee or any of its officers may hold shares as part of the trust fund and to receive the remuneration attaching to such office without being liable to account for the same, and it is directed that the trustee may become qualified as a director by the holding in its own name of shares constituting part of the trust fund provided that the trustee executes a declaration of trust in relation to such shares and that the trustee accounts to the trust fund for all dividends and bonuses payable in respect thereof.
- 7.3 To exercise all rights and privileges and perform all duties appertaining to any shares or stocks for the time being subject to the trusts created by this deed with liberty to assent to any arrangement modifying such rights, privileges or duties and to agree to any scheme or arrangement for the reconstruction or the increase or reduction of the capital of any company and for any such purpose to deposit, surrender or exchange any of the shares or stock or the title thereto and to pay any calls or contributions or other necessary expenses in connection with any shares or stock or any title thereto.
- 7.4 To exercise or concur in exercising all of the powers and discretions given by this deed or by law, notwithstanding that the trustee or any person who is a shareholder or director of the trustee (if the trustee is a company) has or may have a direct or indirect interest (whether as trustee of any other settlement or in its, his or her personal capacity or as a director or shareholder of any other company or otherwise) in the mode or result of exercising any such power or discretion or may benefit either directly or indirectly as a result of the exercise of such power or discretion, and notwithstanding that any trustee for the time being is a sole trustee.
- 7.5 To borrow or raise or concur in raising from any person, including a trustee or beneficiary hereof, with or without security, any money which the trustee thinks expedient for any purpose in relation to the execution of the trusts or powers conferred on the trustee by this deed.

- 7.6 To lend all or any part of the trust fund on such terms and conditions with or without interest or with or without security as the trustee thinks fit to any person including a beneficiary hereof.
- 7.7 To give any bill, indemnity, guarantee or security (including a commercial bill and mortgage or charge with or without a power of sale over all or any part of the trust fund) for payment of money or for the performance of any contract obligation or undertaking by any person and to renegotiate or renew from time to time any such bill, indemnity, guarantee or security.
- 7.8 To apply the whole or any part of the capital or income of the trust fund in or towards payment of any liability undertaken by the trustee in relation to the acquisition of property intended to form part of the trust fund.
- 7.9 If, at any time, the trust fund comprises real property or any interest in real property at the discretion of the trustee to manage, use and let the same or any part thereof, to permit any beneficiary to have the use thereof with or without payment of rent or outgoings, to erect, pull down, rebuild and repair buildings and erections, to carry out improvements of any nature, to make allowances to and arrangements with tenants, to grant or acquire easements or other rights and generally to deal with such property or interest or to join in dealing with the same as if beneficially entitled thereto without being responsible for loss.
- 7.10 To acquire, carry on or join in carrying on any business, either alone or in partnership with any other person as it thinks proper, with power for that purpose to employ therein such part of the capital of the trust fund as it thinks fit and to leave the entire management of such business to any partner therein or manager thereof and to renew partnerships and generally to act in all matters relating to such business as if it were beneficially entitled thereto and without being responsible for loss.
- 7.11 To employ or engage any person (whether or not such person is a trustee or otherwise interested in the trust fund) in any capacity, to transact all or any business of whatsoever nature required to be done in pursuance of the trusts and powers herein contained, including the receipt or payment of money, and to pay the expenses thereof and such further fee or other remuneration for the services thereof as the trustee thinks fit.
- 7.12 To pay out of the trust fund all expenses incidental to the management of the trust fund and the exercise of any discretion or power.
- 7.13 To make any investment on terms that the investment be paid for by more than one instalment and that outstanding instalments may bear interest.
- 7.14 To take on bailment, lease or exchange or on hire purchase or otherwise purchase or acquire any real and personal property and in particular (without limitation) any chattels, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade.
- 7.15 To take and act upon the opinion of any barrister or solicitor practising in the State of South Australia whether in relation to the interpretation of this deed or any other document or statute or as to the administration of the trusts hereof, without being liable to anyone in respect of any act done by it in accordance with such opinion

PROVIDED that nothing herein obliges the trustee to act in accordance with any such opinion AND PROVIDED FURTHER that nothing herein contained prohibits the trustee from applying to the court as it thinks fit.

8 Liability and indemnity of trustee

- 8.1 While acting or purporting to act in the execution of the trust and powers hereof, the trustee will have recourse only to the trust fund in payment of any debts incurred thereby or claims made against the trustee but will not be personally liable for any loss which is not attributable to its own wilful neglect or dishonesty. The beneficiaries are under no obligation to indemnify the trustee against any such debts or claims.

9 Exercise of powers

- 9.1 Any decision or determination by a trustee or any exercise of a power or discretion conferred by this deed is sufficiently made if the trustee is a company by a resolution of the board of directors or other governing body and is sufficiently evidenced (whether or not the trustee is a company) if noted in minutes of proceedings as trustee signed as a true record by the trustee or a director of the trustee. A decision so noted is irrevocable and binding on all beneficiaries unless expressed to be revocable.

10 Variation of deed

The trustee may from time to time as it thinks fit vary or add to this deed by a further deed supplemental hereto but not so that any person other than a beneficiary may acquire a beneficial interest in the trust fund.

11 Appointment of new trustee

- 11.1 The trustee may at any time as it thinks fit resign and by instrument in writing appoint a new trustee or trustees in succession and must transfer the trust fund to such trustee or trustees.
- 11.2 The office of a trustee will be vacated if that trustee becomes incapable of discharging his or her duties because of illness or an unsound mind or becomes bankrupt or, if the trustee is a corporation, an order is made or a resolution is passed which will have the effect of winding up the corporation.
- 11.3 An appointor has the power exercisable jointly with any other appointor from time to time by deed or will to remove a trustee from office and to appoint any person (including a corporation which is not a trustee company within the meaning of the Trustee Act 1958 as amended or re-enacted from time to time) other than an appointor to act alone or jointly with any other person as a trustee hereof. Any appointor may at any time by deed renounce any power granted thereto by this deed and when made such renunciation will be irrevocable.
- 11.4 The trustee must upon retirement or removal cause the trust fund and the assets thereof to be vested in the new trustee or trustees and must deliver thereto all books, documents and other property relating to the trust fund.

11.5 A retiring trustee will be effectually discharged from the trusts created by this deed notwithstanding that any trustee appointed in substitution is acting alone or is not the Public Trustee of South Australia or a trustee company as defined in the Trustee Act 1958 as amended or re-enacted from time to time.

11.6 A new trustee may accept the accounts rendered and the property delivered by a continuing or retiring trustee without being bound to enquire further as to the assets and income of the trust fund.

Any management fees in respect of an income period not claimed during such period will not be recoverable from the trust fund in any other income period.
